With the My Lacrosse Blog tool you can create your own blogs for your team or event. You can do a regular Text Blog where you add entries as in this example, or you can add things like video or pictures as well.

Do you have an event where you want to leave news for your peeps? Maybe leave scores or results?

Add photos or image files to your blog -

Add Videos from any of your favorite video locations You tube, Revver etc...:

Only your imagination limits you from setting up your blog.
